Obituary

*"This isn't death I'm facing but it's life forevermore
It's not the end I'm nearing; it's entering heaven's door.
The way ahead is fairer than it's ever been before,
For it's glory, yes, it's glory over yonder."*

Brother Richard Short, son of Mr. Orange Short and the late Mrs. Susie Lee Austin Short departed this life on Friday, March 15, 1985 at the Haywood Park General Hospital, Brownsville, Tennessee. He was born and reared in Haywood County and received his elementary and high school education in said County. He graduated from Tennessee State University and received a degree in Auto Mechanics. Following his graduation he served as an instructor in this field for several years. After which he returned to Haywood County and became self-employed as a mechanic. He was a very energetic and industrious individual.

Other employment included - Bus Driver for the Haywood County Board of Education; teacher in Basic Adult Education and a farmer. He was a World War II Veteran and received an honorable discharge. After which he was employed as an instructor for other veterans on the local level. He was active in Civic and Community Affairs. He has also served on the Advisory Committee for the Farmers Home Administration.

At an early age he accepted Christ and united with the Good Hope M.B. Church. After moving to Brownsville he united with the First Baptist Church and served as a member of the Trustee Board.

He was married to the former Miss Thelma Jones; to this union no children were born.

SURVIVORS - A very devoted and loving wife, Mrs. Thelma J. Short; his father, Mr. Orange Short of Stanton, Tennessee; three brothers - Messrs. J.C. and Oneal Short of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. Roosevelt Short of Altadena, California; four sisters-Mrs. Verdy Ballard, St. Louis, Missouri; Mrs. Altha Jean Weatherspoon, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Lonnie Joe Watkins, Stanton, Tennessee; Mrs. Alberta Bobbitt, East St. Louis, Mo.; one step-sister, Mrs. Mary Alice Gtanton, Tennessee; two step-brothers - Mr. Jimmy Lee Pierce, Somerville, Tennessee, Mr. Cecil Pierce, Chicago, Illinois; nieces, nephews, in-laws; other relatives and friends to cherish his memories.
