Acknowledgement

 Perhaps you sent a lovely card or
sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day!
Perhaps you whispered a little prayer for us.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much -
Whatever the part.

Obituary

LUELLA PEWITT was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt on March 8, 1910 in Stanton, Tennessee.

She confessed her hope in Christ at a very early age at Douglas Chapel located in Stanton, Tennessee.

She united in Holy Matrimony to Dupree Pewitt and to this union three children were born. Sister Luella and Brother Dupree also raised Wilbur Pewitt as their own. Her husband and one daughter, Rosie Hall preceded her in death.

Luella transferred her membership from Douglas Chapel to Allen Metropolitan in 1972 under the leadership of the Late Reverend Walter A. Miller, where she served as a loyal worker for the Nurses Aide Club, Sunshine Club and Progressive Club.

Luella Hunt Pewitt was one of a kind. All who knew her will remember her warm smile and generous love. Her life was anchored in her faith in Jesus.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two sons: Samuel and wife Evelyn, Wilburt and wife Brenda; one daughter Margaret Taylor, sister Annie Wilson, of Stanton, TN; brother Booker T. Hunt, of Saginaw, MI; twenty-five grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.

"I'll Be Seeing You"

*I am at rest, so don't cry. It will be easier as time goes by.
I've done my best to live a good life,
for I knew if I did, I would be with God.
As my body lies here, it's only a shell.
God has called me home and my job I've done well.
Now I'm happy and very content, for things I've done wrong, I repent.
You know and I know that it's hard on earth.
So you should not cry at death, but at birth.
I have no worries, pains or fears,
Because I'm with God, so dry your tears.
I love you all and this is what I want you to do.
Put God first in your life and I'll be seeing you.*
