OBITUARY

Let not your heart be troubled;
Ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions:
If it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
That where I am, there ye may be also.

It was in the serenity of life that death came quietly to Mr. James McFarland, Sr. in Jackson Madison County General Hospital Monday morning, May 19, 1986.

Mr. James McFarland, Sr. was born January 22, 1912 in Haywood County to the late Mr. Robert and Mrs. Patsy Carney McFarland.

At an early age he accepted Christ, was baptized and joined St. John M. B. Church where he remained a member until his death.

He was united in holy matrimony to Miss Bertha Watkins who preceded him in death. Later, he married Mrs. Nettie Mae Simmon.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted wife, Mrs. Nettie Simmon McFarland; four sons: Mr. LeMonia McFarland of Brownsville, Mr. James McFarland and Mr. Glenn McFarland both of Stanton, Staff Sergeant Thomas McFarland of Fort Eustis, VA.; six daughters: Ms. Ruby McFarland and Mrs. Eva Miller both of Stanton, Mrs. Mae Johnson of Memphis, Mrs. Ann Blue of Birmingham, AL., Ms. Brenda McFarland and Ms. JoAnn McFarland both of Memphis; two grandchildren, whom he reared in his home, Mrs. Marilyn Miller of Brownsville and Mr. Anthony Dotson of Memphis; a brother, Mr. Alvis McFarland of Stanton; two sisters, Mrs. Mammie R. Carney of Louisville, KY. and Mrs. Allean Transou of Stanton; an aunt, Mrs. Olia Rives of Stanton; mother-in-law, Mrs. Beatrice Simmon of Memphis; twenty-eight grandchildren, four great grandchildren, six sisters-in-law, two sons-in-law, two daughters-in-law, five brothers-in-law, several nieces, nephews, friends and relatives.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Death has left a loneliness, no one can ever fill,
No one knows the heartache,
Only those who have lost can tell,
Of the grief and sorrow for the one we loved so well.
