"...Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning..." Psalm 30:5

On the 21st day of June 1980 at 12:07 a.m. in the Jackson Madison County General Hospital, peace came to Mrs. Willie Beatrice Fields. She was called home to reap the great reward for the faithful.

Willie B. Fields was born January 24, 1904, the fourth of six children born to Penn Jones and Carrie Gilliam Jones, both of whom preceded her in death. She was born and reared in Haywood County, Tennessee, where she lived all her life.

In early childhood, she joined the Fredonia Baptist Church of which she was a devoted member until death. She was a faithful member of the choir and had served on the Usher Board. She was also a faithful Sunday School member. She was faithful in whatever she could do to help the Christian cause. She was a friendly person and always greeted you with a kiss and a smile.

On March 9, 1924 she was united in Holy Matrimony to Joe C. Fields, who preceded her in death. To this union one son, Claude Lee, was born. They also reared a foster son, Floyd. They both preceded her in death.

Surviving are two sisters: Mrs. Carrie Maclin of Chicago, Illinois and Mrs. Stella Robinson of Nashville, Tennessee; one brother: Lonnie Jones of St. Louis, Missouri; one granddaughter; five sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends who will always remember her presence and miss her dearly.

She was a noble wife and mother,
Loved by all she knew.
Everyone she tried to help
And smiled the whole day through.

She served and loved her Master
And tried His will to do,
Was always helping others-
A life so noble, kind and true.

We shall miss her bright smile
And all her loving ways,
But we'll try to live for Jesus,
And meet her at the end of our days.
