

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever amen.

For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
By joy shall come with early light.

And numbered every secret tear;
And heavens' long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.
