

OBITUARY

Bro. Chevalier White was born into this world Sunday, September 6, 1964 to Bertha and T.J. White, Sr. Yes, today would have been Val's birthday, he would have been 23. Val accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Mt. Zion M.B. Church. Here he was active in the Sunday school until he went away to college.

After graduation from Haywood High School in 1982, he enrolled in the University of Oklahoma at Norman, where he was studying both petroleum and civil engineering. While attending school, he was also employed full-time by Phillips Petroleum Co.

Val was ill only hours before departing this life on Thursday evening, September 3, 1987 at the Deaconess Hospital in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

He leaves to cherish his memory, three loving sisters: Deborah Moore of Flint, Michigan; Clarice and Rhonda White of Memphis; seven loving brothers: James and Durant of Houston, Texas; T.J., Jr. of Hercules, California; Michael and Darren of Memphis; Gregory of Stanton and Wendell of Oklahoma City; one brother-in-law, Kenneth Moore of Flint, Michigan; three sisters-in-law: Katie of Hercules, California, Gloria of Houston, Texas and Susie of Memphis; he also leaves his grandmother, Alice Peete of Stanton, his nephews: Mikee, Tavis, Jay and Kalen; his nieces: Kim, Krissi, Ariel and Krystal; two aunts, three uncles and a host of friends and relatives.

Striving, Striving
Trying to do my best

Working hard, Studying hard
Trying to stand the test;

God, I'm trying to multiply
The talents that you gave,

I stumble and I fall,
pause and then succeed

Striving, Striving
Trying to do my best

Yes Lord, Yes Lord
I have stood the test.

— C.R. white

P R O G R A M

PROCESSIONAL

MUSIC CHOIR

SCRIPTURE AND PRAYER REV. F.J. POWELL

MUSIC CHOIR

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS SIS. KATIE MACKLIN

SOLO SIS. ELMIRA GWENN

OBITUARY READ SILENTLY

REMARKS

EULOGY REV. HUN DOUGLAS, JR.

MORTICIAN IN CHARGE

SONG-- "HOW DO WE SAY GOODBYE"

PRAYER

RECESSIONAL

In Loving Memory Of

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The T. J. White, Sr. family genuinely acknowledges with bountiful gratitude all your comforting expressions of love and concern through the cards, calls, visits, prayers and every other act of kindness shown throughout our time of great bereavement. God gives us each other to make it through tragic moments like these. You shall all be forever remembered. Please continue to pray for us.

PALLBEARERS

7 BROTHERS
1 BROTHER-IN-LAW

FLOWER BEARERS

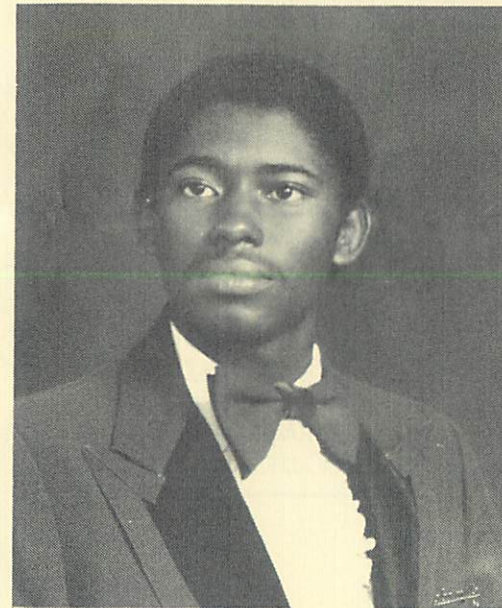

THOMAS SNEED, JR.
TERRY DUCKWORTH
AND OTHER FRIENDS

INTERMENT

WESLEY CEMETERY
STANTON , TENNESSEE

CHEVALIER WHITE

SEPTEMBER 6, 1964 - SEPTEMBER 3, 1987

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1987
2:30 P.M.

MT. ZION MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
STANTON, TENNESSEE
REVEREND HUN DOUGLAS, JR., PASTOR