God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
the sleepless nights are past,
the ever patient worn out frame,
has found sweet rest at last.

From his loving wife and family.

Obituary

Mr. Ozie B. Carney was born along with a twin sister, who preceded him in death (Occie Carney Williamson) January 23, 1929 in Stanton, Tennessee to the late Otto Sr. and Esther Pruitt Carney.

At an early age, he accepted Christ and became a member of Douglas Chapel C.M.E. Church under the pastorage of Rev. E.W. Selby, he attended Douglas Junior High School in Stanton, Tennessee.

In 1952, he united in holy matrimony with Lela Mae Boyd and they moved to Chicago, Illinois. He retired in 1991 from Inter State Brand (Butternut Bread Company).

Ozie departed this life November 19, 1994 at 2:40 a.m. after a lengthy illness.

He leaves to mourn a loving, devoted wife, Lela Mae Carney; one son, Johnnie (Pearl) Starks; three grandchildren, one great-grandson, all of Toledo, Ohio; mother-in-law, Mrs. Tessie Douglas of Stanton, Tennessee; five sisters: Mattie (Ross) Cannon, Mildred (John) Sweet, all of Chicago, Celestine (Early) Caldwell, Annie Rachel Miller of Gary, Indiana and Cosetta Miller of Decatur, Michigan; two brothers: Otto Carney and Lee (Earnestine) Carney of Chicago, Illinois; four sisters-in-law, six brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, very dear cousins and friends; one god-daughter, Tindra Sweet of Atlanta, Georgia.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness..."

II Timothy 4: 7-8
