Another chapter in the book of life has been completed. A short one but a beautiful one. It began May 28th, 1945 in Haywood County when Corporal R. T. Perry was born to Rev. and Mrs. James T. Perry. At this time two sons were born, R. T. Perry and O. T. Perry.

Corporal R. T. Perry confessed a hope in Christ and joined the Dancyville C.M.E. Church at an early age where e remained a faithful and active member in the choir and a regular Sunday School Attendant. He further gave his service to God by singing with the Gospel Travel Singers of Somerville, Tenn.

Corporal R. T. Perry spend his boyhood as any normal boy would. He attended and finished Dancyville Elementary School, Douglas Jr. High, and Carver High, all of Haywood County. He spent two years at Lane College, majoring in Business Administration. During his stay at Lane College he was Treasurer of the Freshman and Sophomore Classes, a member of the Business Club and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. He was loved by all the students and teachers of all the schools he attended.

Corporal R. T. Perry leaves to moan his passing: a father Rev. James T. Perry, a mother Mrs. Bertha M. Perry, a grandmother Mrs. Mae Della Perry, all of Stanton, Tenn. One son Mr. James E. Perry of New York City, engaged to wed Miss Roslyn Archman of New York City. Five sisters: Mrs. Lula Mae Dawkins of Markham, Ill., Mrs. Gertrude Turner of Stanton, Tenn., Mrs. Ruby R. Dotson of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Alberdia Flagg
