

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part. May God bless each of you.

Obituary

Mrs. Louise Archibald Ragland was born December 9, 1915 in Stanton, Tennessee to Mr. and Mrs. Winzor Archibald. To this union six children were born.

She accepted Christ at an early age at the Dancyville C. M. E. Church under the pastorate of Reverend Qualls in Dancyville, Tennessee. Later she married James C. Ragland to which three children were born. Shortly after she moved to Memphis, Tennessee where Mt. Olive C. M. E. became her church home. She was a senior choir member, a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Sarah C. Wells Missionary Circle. She took an active part in each until sickness slowed her down in latter years.

She departed this life, March 21, 1990, 12:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee.

Her father, Winzor; mother, Fannie; brothers, Roe Archibald, Robert Archibald, Aaron D. Archibald; sister, Alma Archibald; daughter-in-law, Lucille Ragland; grandson, Robert Kevin Ragland; all preceded her in death.

She is survived by three sons, James M. Ragland of Euclid, Ohio, Robert E. Ragland of Memphis, Tennessee; William A. Ragland of Los Angeles, California; one sister, Rosetta Bryant of Memphis, Tennessee; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Lucy Archibald, Clara Archibald; one brother-in-law, Mr. Claude Bryant; a very dear and devoted friend, Mrs. Georgia M. Holloway, whom she lived with for many years; a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

*God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered peace be thine.*

*The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are past,
The ever patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*
