OBITUARY

Memories are treasures, none can steal
 Death is a heartache, none can heal
 Some may forget you are gone
 We will remember you no matter how long
 We miss you now our hearts are sore
 As time goes by we will miss you more
 Your loving smile, your gentle face
 No one can ever take your place

Bro. Livingston Whitelaw was one of the three children of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Whitelaw in Haywood County, Tennessee. He was born July 4, 1909. He departed this life Saturday, February 2, 1985 at 12:30 A. M.

In childhood he professed a hope in Christ under the late Rev. Parr and united with the First Baptist Church. He served as an usher and attended Sunday School until disabled.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loyal and devoted wife, Mrs. Linnie D. Bond Whitelaw; two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Campbell and Mrs. Susie Cole; two brothers-in-law, Mr. George Campbell and Mr. Joe John Cole; one aunt, Mrs. Hattie McQuire; one niece and a host of relatives and friends.

Sleep on Luke, take your rest
 We love you, but God loves you best
