A Tribute To Chris
With Love,
Constance, Your Wife

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss Me A Little - But Not Too Long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared - Miss Me - But Let Me Go. For this a journey that we all must take. And each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan. A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Obituary

Christopher M. Murphy was born to Louella Murphy Lewis and Wayne Brown on October 29, 1969 in Shelby County, Tn. He confessed Jesus as his Lord at an early age. Christopher went home to be with his Lord on June 16, 1995.

He leaves to celebrate his going home his loving wife: Constance Williams Murphy; his mother: Louella (Babysister) Lewis; his father: Wayne Brown (Diane); one sister: Creasy (Nana) Murphy; one brother: Terrell Brown; two grandparents: Mrs. Callie Murphy and Mrs. Versie Brown; a mother-in-law: Mary Williams; father-in-law: S.T. Williams; eight aunts, eight uncles, six sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends to express their love and say goodbye.

To A Son

*I will say of the Lord
He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God in Him will I trust,
I give you Chris into God's loving arms, who'll always share my heart.*

Babysister

*C - for Cheerfulness you had in your heart
H - for Helping hands you gave to others
R - for Respect you had for others
I - for being Intelligent
S - for the Smile you always had.*

*I Love You,
Nana*

For the love and caring you gave to me each day. You left so suddenly I couldn't say my last goodbye. It was the little things you did to show your love each and every day.

*A Special Friend,
Kateri (Tu) Perry*
