"I'll Be Seeing You"

I'm at rest so don't cry
It will be easier as time goes by.
I've done my best and lived a good life,
For I knew if I did, I would be with God.
As my body lies here, it's only a shell
God has called me home and my job I've done well.
I'm happy and very content,
For things that were misunderstood, I do repent.
I know and you should know, that it's hard on earth.
So you should not cry at death, but at birth.
I have no worries, pains or fears.
Because I'm with God, so dry your tears.
I love you all and this is what I want you to do.
Put God first in your life and I'll be seeing you.

"Father"

Obituary

Ross Cannon was born January 5, 1914 in Oxford, Mississippi to the union of the late Sherman and Cornelia Cannon.

Ross served in United States Army from October 15, 1942 to November 13, 1945.

Ross united in holy matrimony to Mattie L. Carney on March 2, 1943. To this union of fifty-one years, three sons and one daughter were born.

He was a devoted, hard-working husband and father. Ross adored his children and was most concerned about their well-being.

He was a dedicated employee of Michael Reese Hospital for many years from where he retired.

On December 4, 1994, Ross departed this life at home. Ross will be deeply missed and leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted wife, Mattie L. Cannon; sons: David (Seketha) Cannon of Albany, Georgia, Gene Edward (Dana) Cannon of Centreville, Virginia and Michael Kevin (Denise) Cannon of Chicago, Illinois; one daughter, Vanessa Cannon of Hazel Crest, Illinois; one sister, Nellie Harmon of Chicago, Illinois; six grandchildren: Charisma, Shelby, Candice, Robynn, Ross and Park; a number of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
Henceforth there is laid up for me
a crown of righteousness which the Lord,
the righteous judge, shall give me at that day,
and not to me only,
but unto all them also that love his appearing

II Timothy 4: 7-8

Interment

Oak Woods Cemetery

You are not forgotten Dad, nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we will miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
no one can fill your vacant place.
Humbly Submitted,
