*The love that we shared
was greater than gold,
The time that we spared
no one can ever behold
Our feelings for you
will never die away,
Only our memories of you will guide us in the right way.*

*Seeing as though you're gone
is a reason to be sad, But knowing where you are makes us more than glad.*

*The love that we have will forever remain in our heart,
And for the rest of our life
You will always be a part.*

*Memories are treasures no one can steal
Death is heartache, no one can heal
Some may forget now that you are gone,
But we will remember, no matter how long
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we'll miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever take your place.*

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary M. Bond was born June 11, 1932, to the union of the late George Belvery and Edna P. Carney of Haywood County. She departed this life on June 27, 1996, at St. Francis Hospital of Memphis, Tennessee.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age at Bluff Creek Baptist Church in Brownsville, Tennessee. She later moved to Memphis, where she joined St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Joel Welch, where she served until her death.

On December 24, 1949, she was united in holy matrimony to Willie Lee Bond. In this union two children were born.

She had a special friend, J. J. Robinson of 28 years who preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn her passing a husband of 47 years, Mr. Willie Lee Bond; two sons, Willie Lee Bond, Jr. (LaVerne) and William Alex Bond (Sharon), all of Memphis, Tennessee; three sisters, Mildred Benton and Vernell Carney of Memphis, Tennessee, Frances Ware of Indianapolis, Indiana; three brothers, Frank Albert Carney of Memphis, Tennessee, James W. Carney of Stanton, Tennessee and James C. Carney of Brownsville, Tennessee; 11 grandchildren, one she raised as a daughter, Michelle L. Bond, three great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews and friends.
