Obituary

*There is a reaper whose name is death;
And with his sickle keen
He reaps whom he will at a breath,
He comes but cannot be seen.*

Josephine West was born in Haywood County to the late Albert and Suzanna Bond West, February 28, 1923.

On Thursday, January 04th, 2001, at 1:40p.m., at her residence, the death angel came and bore the bright spirit of Josie away to a land that is free from sickness, sorrow, pain and death. She bore her illness patiently and even though her family did everything that they could to relieve her pain and to prolong her life, it was God's Will that she enter his kingdom. Josie realized that and was not alarmed at the thought of dying.

At an early age she professed a hope in Christ and united with the Macedonia Baptist Church.

Believing that one can succeed, she therefore owned and operated her own business for many years. She will be missed in the community.

Our Heavenly Father knows our sadness, He knows our grief, and to all of our friends, he will give relief. His blessed promise will never fail and He will guide us through the vale, when death claims our loved ones. Jesus knows our sorrow. He knows our pain. He will be our comfort. He will be with us all the way.

She leaves to cherish her memories two sisters: Gladys Mae Bowles, Stanton, TN; Johnnie Ruth Coleman, Chicago, IL; a host of neices, nephews, relatives and friends.

*Work and pray till Jesus calls you,
Help to gather in the grain
Then with joy you will meet your loved one
And there in happiness remain.*
