I Needed the Quiet!

*I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside
into the shadows, where we could confide
Away from the hassle, where all the day long..
I hurried and worried when active and strong,
I needed the quiet, though at first I rebelled,
but gently, so gently my cross He upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things,
though weakened in body, my spirit took wings,
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so gently, He drew me away.
I needed the quiet, no prison my bed,
but a beautiful valley of blessings instead.
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet; so He drew me aside.*

*Love...
The Grandchildren*

Moma,

You fought a good fight, you kept the faith. Only you, me, and God knows. I love you and will always cherish the beautiful memories we shared. I did what I could for you and never regretted one moment of it. If only I knew that times was drawing so near, I would have done more. There will always be a special place in my heart that no one else but you can take that place. I love you and will never, never forget you. So we shall see each other again by and by one day.

Love You With All My Heart

Obituary

Annie Bell Hunt Wilson was born to the late George and Annie Hunt on February 23, 1914 in Haywood County, Stanton, Tennessee.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at a very early age at Douglas Chapel C.M.E. Church.

She was united in holy matrimony to June Wilson, who preceded her in death, and to this union five (5) children were born. She had two (2) daughters, Tempie Ett and Sarah Lue, who preceded her in death.

She was very faithful and dedicated to her church until her health began to fail.

She was one of a kind, and will be remembered by everyone that knew her by that warm smile and her generous love. Her life was anchored in her faith in Jesus.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: two (2) daughters: Thelma Wilson of Stanton, TN and Joyce Ann Croom of Flint, MI; three (3) sons: Charlie and June Ed (Julia) Wilson of Stanton, TN and Tommie Wilson of Selmer, TN. She also reared a grandson, Anthony Wilson as her own; one (1) brother, Booker T. Hunt of Saginaw, MI; fifteen (15) grandchildren, seventeen (17) great-grandchildren; nine (9) great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"I'll Be Seeing You"

*I am at rest, so don't cry,
it will be easier as time goes by.
I've done my best to live a good life,
for I knew if I did, I would be with God.
As my body lies here, it's only a shell,
God has called me home and my job I've done well.
Now I'm happy and very content,
for things I've done wrong, I repent.
You know and I know that it's hard on earth,
so you should not cry at death, but at birth.
I have no worries, pains or fears, because I'm with God, so dry your tears.
I love you all and this is what I want you to do...
"Put God first in your life, and I'll be seeing you."*
