His Life

"Let not your heart be troubled...
John 14:1

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you."
John 14:27

Oneal Boyd was born April 13, 1907 to the late James L. and Fannie V. Boyd in Haywood County, Stanton, TN. He was the fourth child of fourteen children.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Prospect C.M.E. Church in Stanton, TN.

Later the family moved to Lucy, Tennessee and he united with Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church, but upon moving and establishing in the Woodstock area, he joined Greenleaf C.M.E. Church, where he remained a faithful member, serving until his health became impaired.

He served as a choir member, a Trustee and a Steward.

In 1926, he was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Verlie Thomas; to this union one daughter was born, Alma Boyd Malone, who preceded him in death. In 1934, he was united to Mildred Harris, who also preceded him in death.

On July 11, 1963, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Carrie Payne.

Oneal Boyd

Memories are Treasures none can steal
Death is a heartache none can heal;
Some may forget you now that you're gone
But we will remember no matter how long.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we'll miss you more;
Your loving smile, your gentle face;
No one can ever take your place.

He retired from the Millington Naval Air Station. He also worked as a Volunteer Foster Grandparent at the Arlington Development Center, where he received special recognition and awards for his services.

He was a kind and gentle person. He was a loving and devoted husband, devoted to his family and his friends. He also loved children and young people.

He made his transition Tuesday, October 31, 1995 at 2:00 p.m. at Methodist Hospital - North.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Carrie M. Boyd; two daughters, Margaret Johnson and Gladys Thompson; four sisters, Jimmie L. Somerville (Sylvester) of Millington, Tennessee, Evelyn Ingram of Carson, California, Annie Marie Lane of Southfield, Michigan, and Milva Opal Gill of Memphis, Tennessee; one brother, Curtis Boyd (Barbara) of Morristown, New Jersey; twenty-five grandchildren, twenty-seven great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, eight sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, two sons-in-law, four stepsons, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends who loved him dearly.
