Obituary

Not in cruelty, Not in wrath, the reaper came to the resident, Route 2, Stanton, Tennessee, Tuesday, March 18, 1986 about 12:00 P.M. and called from labor to reward Mr. Kellas Maclin.

Mr. Maclin, youngest child born to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Maclin, in Tipton County, Tennessee, May 5, 1908.

At an early age, he was converted and united with the Greenleaf Presbyterian Church, Keeling, Tennessee, where he served for a number of years as Superintendent of Sunday Schools and a Trustee until death.

Mr. Maclin was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Leathy Baskerville, December 24, 1936 and remained until death.

Kellas attended the Public Schools of Tipton County. He was a farmer and a bus driver over twenty-five years until his retirement in 1975.

His survivors include: a devoted and faithful wife of almost fifty years, Mrs. Leathy Baskerville Maclin; one foster son and daughter-in-law, Mr. Freddie and Sallie Hodge of Akron, Ohio; nine grandchildren, four nieces, Mrs. Eurlena Maclin and Miss Geraldine Boyd, both of Stanton, TN, Eunistine Maclin and Mrs. Almastine Davis from New York, NY, a nephew Mr. Bland Maclin of Indianapolis, IND; a host of grand nieces and nephews, and other relatives to mourn his passing.

"God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered please be mine.
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The everpresent worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.
In God's eternal home.
Where there is no pain or sorrow
We hope to see your loving face.
In the peaceful never ending tomorrow.
