DANCYVILLE C. M. E. CHURCH

-DANCYVILLE-

REV. O. L. UPSHAW, PASTOR

OBITUARY

We have come together today at the call of death, an event that is constantly around us.

Death stare us in the face on all sides. The fields that were green a few days ago are now brown. Most people look upon death as a dark gloomy thing, but the death of the righteous is like the lowering clouds that shut out the sun at noonday. Death to a Christian is moving out of this cold friendless dark world into eternal day light.

That's what Sister Malinda Douglass has done. Sister Douglass was born on March 12, 1888 to the union of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ned Ragland.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Warren Douglass, and to this union no children were born. At an early age she made her confession in Christ, and united with the Dancyville C. M. E. Church; where her membership remained until death.

She possessed the characterization of an earnest Christian worker before her health failed; always ready to give a helping hand to build up God's cause. She lived to reap a very ripe old age, but God saw fit to to release her from suffering on June 23, 1979 at 7:50 A. M. She was a good neighbor, and a loveable person.

Life is a time of trouble and afflictions; some with pain so much that life becomes a burden. Let the family be comforted that your loved one who served the Saviour so well know that your loved one is just only sleeping and will awaken in a land of rest; where everyday is a happy day.

She leaves to mourn her passing 2 nieces, Mrs. Emma Green, Mrs. Ollie Mae Stewart, of St. Louis, Mo., and a host of other relatives and friends.

Thus star by star declines
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines,
To purer and perfect day.
