Obituary

Gone is the Face we love so dear-
Silent is the Voice we loved to hear-
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thoughts to reach.

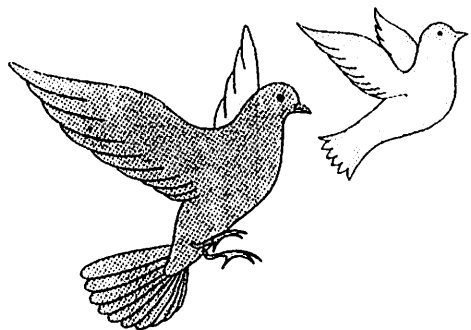

Mr. Robert Ed Hobson was born Sept. 25, 1900 to the late Mr. Jim and Mrs. Jennie Hobson. He departed this life Jan. 26, 1996, after a long illness, at home, being the age of ninety-five.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Mrs. Areline Sangster and to this union were born three daughters. His wife preceded him in death.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Dancyville C.M.E. Church. After moving to Brownsville, TN, in keeping with the covenant, he joined the First Baptist Church in Brownsville. He was a faithful and diligent member. Later in life he rejoined his home church, Dancyville C.M.E., where he was a dedicated member as well. He served on the Trustee and Steward Boards.

Mr. Hobson was a lifetime father, grandfather and friend. He was there for strangers and acquaintances; he loved and was loved by all.

He leaves to cherish his Christian example: three daughters, Mrs. Magnolia Rogers of Brownsville, TN, Mrs. Lee Thelma Mask and Mrs. Fannie B. Taylor, both of Louisville, KY; a son-in-law, Mr. David Mask of Louisville, KY; one granddaughter he reared, Aretha Jones of Jacksonville, FL; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-eight great-grandchildren; twenty-nine great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Recessional...

God saw you were getting weary, so He did what He knew best-
He came and sat beside you and whispered, "Come and rest."
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a last good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it
But we know and believe that God knows why.
