

A Poem

Sleep on, beloved Sam, and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviors breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best
Goodnight, goodnight, goodnight:

Only good-night beloved not forever
But thou shall wake no more to toil and weep;
Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep;
Good-night, goodnight, goodnight.

Daddy Rest In Peace

Daddy, rest in peace
Now that you have gone to sleep
We hope that you are resting in peace
Your life was short
But so sweet
So please Daddy, rest in peace.

Obituary

It has been the will of the almighty father to suddenly call unto eternal rest Sam Middlebrook, on the fifteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord 1979.

Sam Middlebrook, son of Amy Middlebrook and the late Oscar Middlebrook, was born on July 21, 1922 in Stanton, Tennessee. He moved to Buffalo, N. Y. to better his condition and was employed at Bethlehem Steel Co. for 26 years and was a member of Local 2603.

Those who knew him can witness that he lived by the golden rule. He did unto others as he would have them do unto him.

He leaves to mourn his departure: a wife, Mrs. Patricia Middlebrook; one daughter, Marcia Ann Middlebrook; three brothers: Clarence Middlebrook, of Detroit, Mich., Kenneth Middlebrook and Ruben Middlebrook; two sisters: Eunice Williams and Sharon Carter; two aunts: Mary Taylor and Adell Middlebrook; three uncles: John, James and Honey; seven nieces, four nephews, four great nieces and two great nephews.
