Perhaps you said a silent prayer
or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray
if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us today.
Whatever you did to console our heart
we thank you so much whatever the part.

Obituary

James Thomas Walker was born in Brownsville, Tennessee August 17, 1936, the only son to the union of Pearline Taylor Walker and LaFayette (Sonny) Walker, who preceded him in death.

He departed this life in the early morning hours, Monday, October 8, 1990 in Jackson, Tennessee. James grew up in the Woodlawn Community and professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Woodlawn Baptist Church.

He was a career service man, who served 21 years in the United States Armed Forces. Upon retirement he moved back to the West Tennessee area and reunited with the Woodlawn Baptist Church. He was employed by the United States Postal service at Jackson, Tennessee for the last 10 years.

James was a dedicated family man and a loving father. He leaves to cherish his memories, a loving and devoted sister, Mrs. Pearl T. Jones and a brother-in-law, Marshall Jones of 1589 Binford Rd., Brownsville, Tennessee; five daughters, Lorrie Ann, Decatur, Ill., Edith, Oakiawka, Japan, LaTonya and Shemeka, Louisville, Ky. and Jessica, Brownsville, Tennessee; two sons, Kenneth, Decatur, Ill., and James Jr., Brownsville; one grandson, Louisville, Ky; two granddaughters, Decatur, Ill. and Brownsville, TN; five aunts; one uncle; ten nieces; six nephews; a host of cousins and a multitude of friends.

When earths last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried. When the oldest colors have faded and the youngest critics have died, We shall rest by faith and we shall need it. Lie down until the God of all good workmen shall put us to work anew, and only the master shall priase us and only the master shall blame, and no one shall work for money and no one shall work for fame, but each for the joy of working and each in his separate star, shall paint the thing as he sees it, for the God of things as they are.
