Obituary

Mr. Walter Lee Mask was born August 30, 1931 in Brownsville, Tennessee to the late Robert Mask and Mrs. Hattie Churn Mask.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age at the Douglass Chapel C. M. E. Church. Later, he moved to Louisville, Kentucky where he lived for forty years. He moved back to Memphis after retiring from National Roofing Industry and reunited with the Douglass Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church where he remained until his passing.

In April 1988, he was joined in holy matrimony to Mae Emma Jones.

On November 4, 1995 at 2:30 p.m., Oakville Health Care Center, Walter (Bill) departed this life leaving to cherish his memories: a devoted wife, Mae Emma Mask; four stepdaughters, Emma Jones, Thelma (William) Hayslett, Mary Clay and Clara (Jessie) Malone, all of Memphis; one stepson, Eddie (Greta) Jones of Nashville, Tennessee; four sisters, Beatrice Allen of East St. Louis, Illinois, Fannie Miller of Gary, Indiana, Alma (Willie) Hodge of Cleveland, Ohio, and Earnestine Johnson of Louisville, Kentucky; two brothers, Lee (Agnes) McGhee of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Robert (Annie Bell) Mask of Memphis; father-in-law, James Ivory Taylor; one sister-in-law, Violet DeGraffenreid; ten grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

"Let not your heart be troubled:
ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions:
if it were not so, I would have told you I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again,
and receive you unto myself; that where I am,
there ye may be also.
St. John 14:1-3

So Little Time

So little time to say the things you'd really like to say-- Before you even find the words,
the time just slips away
So little time to do the things you feel that you must do,
So treasure like the purest gold,
the time God's given you Oh yes there is so little time to seek the hidden door
That opens up to heaven's time, where time's forever more.
