TRIBUTE

God looked around his Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, he always take the best.

He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
And he knew that you would never get better on earth again.

He saw your path was difficult, he closed your tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace Be Thine", and gave you wings to fly.

When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.

You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through our memories, you're always by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul,

*He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me,
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;*

my cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house
of the Lord forever.*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

TRIBUTE

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb;

He gently closed those loving eyes,

And whispered, "Peace Be Thine".

The weary hours, the days of pain,

The sleepless nights are passed;

The ever patient worn out frame,

Has found "Sweet Rest At Last".
