

*When she shall die
Take her and cut her out in little stars
And she will make the face of heaven so fine
That all the world will be in love with night
And pay no worship to the garish sun.*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrows to you through the years.
Start out bravely with a gallant smile,
For my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I, in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

Minutes of Gold

*Two or three minutes - two or three hours
What do they mean in this life of ours?
Not very much if but counted as time,
But minutes of gold and hours sublimes.
If only we'll use them once in a while
To make someone happy - make someone smile
A minute may dry a little lad's tears
An hour sweep aside trouble of years.
Minutes of my time may bring to an end
Hopelessness somewhere, and bring me a friend.*
