OUR PRAYER

We turn to The Almighty God in this time of grief,
We do not beg for comfort and we do not ask for relief.
We only seek thy courage and the strength to bear our sorrow,
So that we might still fulfill our places and carry on tomorrow.
We do not want to drop our crosses or fall beside the way,
Just give us grace to serve the God for still another day.
Let not our bodies weaken now, let not our minds go weary,
However much your skies seem to be more dark and dreary.
Enable us to do thy will however great our loses,
And as your humble servant God, help us bear our crosses.

OBITUARY

ISIAH GOODLOW, a native of Cherokee, Alabama, was born Sept. 16, 1902 to the late Wess and Lue Goodlow. He departed from us January 14, 1986.

Daddy was what most people call "special". He was kind, dependable, and respected by all. Those who knew him as a custodian at Savannah North Elementary School saw him for his devotion to his work and children. He always stated that if he didn't love children so much he would've never stayed for 45 years. He will be dearly missed by everyone.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his brother, James Goodlow of Florence, Alabama, three daughters, Bernice Hopson of Savannah, Tennessee, Mildred Rushing of Chicago, Illinois, and Lula McClellan of Counce, Tennessee, a step-daughter, Doris Sparks of Savannah, Tennessee, a step-son, Bobby Gean Kendall of Gary, Indiana, sisters-in-law, Mary McDaniel, Minnie Graham, Mary Elizabeth Goodlow, Jo Porter, Christine Dixon, and Liz Sevier, brothers-in-law, Charles Graham, Sam Dixon, and Luther Porter. He also leaves a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his wives, Irene Dixon Goodlow, and Mae Shelby Goodlow, his sons, James Arthur Goodlow, and Issac Nelson Goodlow, his sisters, Elizabeth Goodlow, Leatha Prince, Mary Ella Goodlow, and his brother, Jimmy Goodlow.
