ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are so very thankful for your kind words of thoughtfulness, you have given us during the sickness and passing of our loved one.

May God bless and keep each and everyone of you.

THANKS TO YOU, SISTER

Thanks to you, sister all is well.

The lessons you taught, We've learned them well.
Through your great strength, we've learned to stand,
With humility and dignity with our fellow man.

You taught us self-reliance while being merciful still,
Honesty, kindness and all kinds of skill.
To live the Lord and in Him to trust.

These are just some of the lessons you left with us.

Your last days, we'll never forget,
You looked death in the face without fear or fret.
Humbly and meekly you gave up the ghost,
While greeting with peace and joy your heavenly host.

The shelter of Tee's lap,
The haven of her arms,
The magic of her lullabies
And tender Tee's charms.
The wisdom of her sound advice,
The comfort of her truth,
Her gentle understanding of the
Fragileness of youth —
Remembrance of Tee's love
Lingers on and on.
In the warm and glowing memories
Long after Tee's gone.

OBITUARY

Catherine (Tee) Sanderlin was born November 25, 1914 to the late Ed and Mary Reed. She was one of seven children born in Haywood County. She accepted Christ at a early age and joined the Mercer Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member until her health failed her. At Mercer Baptist Church she served as musician for 60 years. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Tom Sanderlin Jr. To this union no children were born, but reared two, David Comage and Girlean Bowles. Tee as we all called her always had something good and nice to say. She loved her family. She took a flight on Thursday, October 3, 1991 at the HCA Hospital in Jackson, Tennessee. Leaving to cherish her memories a great nephew whom she reared, David Comage; four sisters, Cleo Comage, Mammie Sue Brown of Stanton, Tennessee, Girlean Bowles and Theddie Perkins of Brownsville, Tennessee; one sister to precede her in death, Lillie Mae Taylor; one brother, Joe Reed of Milwaukee, Wis.; one aunt, Annie Johnson of Wynn, Arkansas. Five brothers-in-law, eight sisters-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, friends and two special friends whom cared for her during her illness, Minnie Williams and Diane Worles.
