

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
He leadeth me beside the still waters
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Obituary

ALLIE B. EVANS was born October 30, 1907 to Jack and Rachel Cox. She was one of fourteen children born in Brownsville, Tennessee.

She accepted the Lord at the age of twelve years old and joined the Woodlawn Baptist Church in Brownsville, Tennessee under the pastorate of the Rev. Hardin Smith. She served as a member there until 1954 when she moved to Chicago and joined the Fellowship M. B. Church under the pastorate of the Rev. Clay Evans, and worked with the Deaconess Board faithfully until her illness.

She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Tim Evans on February 27, 1930, and to this union three children were born of which one son, Willie T., preceded her in death.

Aunt Allie B., as we all called her, always had something good to say. She was known for her funny stories. She loved the Church, the Pastor and her Club.

She took flight early Sunday morning, November 6, 1988 at 8:00 a.m. from Grant Hospital.

Leaving to cherish her memories: one daughter, Beatrice Jones of Chicago, Illinois; two sons, Lee (Jean) Evans of Chicago and Eddie B. Evans of Cleveland, Ohio; four brothers: Dan and Edker Cox of Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. Charlie (Violet) Cox of Earlinton, Kentucky and Lee (Annie Mae) Cox of Dyersburg, Tennessee; three grandchildren: Charlotte Maffett and Michelle Jones of Los Angeles, California and Sonja Jones of Chicago; four great-grandchildren, six sisters-in-law, a host of relatives, friends and her Fellowship family.
