ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep gratitude and appreciation the thoughtfulness, love and concern extended to them during the illness and loss of their loved one. May God Bless each of you.

ASLEEP

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep.
So there's no reason for you to weep.
This is a little debt we all must pay.
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow.
Now I don't have a worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on.
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way
When I was down you knew what to say.
You always told me to get some rest
Let me sleep, now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace.
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize that this was meant to be and now God has come for me.*

Mother

*God saw you getting tired,
and the cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you and whispered "come home."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away
although we couldn't bear to lose you,
We would not ask you to stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands laid to rest
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

Mollie Lou Taylor was born March 10, 1908 in Somerville, Tennessee to Alex and Lizzie Taylor. To this union 7 children were born, 2 sons and 5 daughters. She was the second oldest of the seven. Father, Mother, 2 brothers and 3 sisters preceed her in death.

At an early age she professed a hope in Christ at the New Mt. Zion Baptist Church and remained faithful until her health no longer enabled her to attend. She was a faithful Member of the Usher Board for which she loved and later became a Member of the Mother Board.

She was a loving Mother, Grandmother and Great-Grand and Great-Great Grandmother. She was a devoted sister, loving Aunt and beautiful neighbor.

On Sunday, June 30, 1997 she departed this life at Somerville Methodist Hospital to go home to be with the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memory 4 daughters; Alberta Wilcox (Clarence) of Cleveland, Ohio, Junita Graham of Memphis, Tennessee, Katherine Porter (Monroe) of Kansas City, MO., Helen Bryant of Somerville, Tennessee and 1 son James H. Phillips of Kanas City, MO., 1 sister Susie Taylor of the home. A loving granddaughter, Linda Ray, who she raised, she cared for her until death. 12 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren, a host of nephews, neices, relatives and friends.

Sleep on Mom, take your rest. We love you, but God loves you best.
