

*The Death Angel beckons
And my heart pains endlessly
Yet reality tells me to reckon
For Death was meant to be
The Death Angel calls
And my ears try not to hear
Yet in reality Life can't stall
For Death always takes what's dear
The Death Angel pains so deep
And my feelings bleed away in vain
Even love can't hold what I long to keep
For the Death Angel leaves a painful stain
The Death Angel is today's sorrow
And my world trembles on what's left
I cry.. Even though I know there's a tomorrow
And if so, there awaits the Angel of Death*

OBITUARY

ROBERT LEE PERRY, son of Walter and Betsy Perry, was born July 11, 1914 in Brownsville, Tennessee. He was the oldest of seven children.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Mattie Murphy in 1941. She preceded him in death. To this union, two sons were born. He was married to Margarette Echols in 1978.

Robert formerly was a member of the Bethlehem Baptist Church under the pastorate of Reverend Cleophus Robinson. He later joined the Kennerly Temple Church of God in Christ where he served as a faithful member until his death.

Robert was called to his Heavenly home on Tuesday, September 12, 1989 at 6:15 p.m.

Cherishing his memory are his devoted wife, Margarette; two sons, Walter and Ruddle of St. Louis; his mother, Birdie Perry of Brownsville, Tennessee; three sisters, Edsel Turner of St. Louis, Henrietta Morris of New York and Virginia Chapman of Tennessee; three brothers, Will Ben Perry of St. Louis, Leo Perry of Tennessee and Floyd Perry of California; two granddaughters, Chevelle Denise and Renita Yvette; mother-in-law, Littie Murphy of Tennessee; two daughters-in-law, Minnie and Gloria; two sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear not evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.
