"Miss Me...But Let Me Go"

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites and a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little...but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that was once shared,
Miss me...but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me...but let me go.*

Bro. Stanley Williams, Sr.

He also leaves three sisters:
Jennie Barbee, Lucy Boyd
and Minnie Williams all of St.
Louis, MO.

On Saturday evening, January 6, 1996, Bro. Stanley Williams, Sr. departed this life at the Jackson-Madison County General Hospital. He was born May 4, 1922 to the late Lewis and Susie Peterson Williams, and to this union four children were born. He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with the St. John M.B. Church #1 in Dancyville, TN.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Freddie Mae Bryant on May 9, 1944. Bro. Williams was a veteran of World War II. After returning from service, he started life as a farmer.

With pleasant memories to cherish, he leaves a loving and devoted wife, Freddie Mae; one son, Stanley, Jr. (Debra); four daughters: Linda (Lee) Smith, Callie Sue (Joseph) Robinson, all of St. Louis, MO, Cheryl Williams of Brownsville, TN and Bertha Cato of San Diego, CA; a mother-in-law, Callie Bryant of Memphis, TN; ten grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; six sisters-in-law; seven brothers-in-law; two aunts, Vivian Boyd of Memphis, TN and Jessie Ballard of Stanton, TN; a special play daughter and grandson, Carolyn and Brian Taylor of Brownsville, TN; and a host nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Two brothers and sister preceded him in death.
