

Acknowledgments

The Family of the late Jessie James Bowles would like to thank everyone for your prayers, visits, calls and whatever you did during the sudden death of our loved one. May God continue to bless you, is our prayer.

In Memory Of

A Beautiful Man

September 28, 1930

July 7, 1996

Jessie James Bowles

The Program

The Prelude...

Processional...

Song.....Douglas Choir

Prayer & Scripture.....Rev. Percy Lee, Jr.

Song.....Choir

Expressions.....(2 minutes).....Bro. John A. Bond, Jr.

Acknowledgments.....Hattie Watkins

Solo...

Obituary.....(Silently Read).....Soft Music

Eulogy.....Rev. F. J. Powell, Sr.

Recessional...

The Obituary

"The future is not ours to know
And it may never be-
So let us live and give our best,
Never anticipating or doubting
The power of our Savior;
Asking nothing of tomorrow, except-
Thy will be done."

Jessie James Bowles, son of the late Jessie & Lessie Mabon Bowles, was born September 28, 1930. On Sunday evening, July 7, 1996, at 7:50 pm, the Lord called him home to eternal rest. May his soul find peace, favor and acceptance with His maker.

He was married to Thelma Taylor Bowles and lived happily with her until her passing on August 1, 1992. Jessie was a hard worker, employed by American Stove Products, Memphis, TN until his retirement. He was also a good farmer, he loved to work with his hands.

Cherishing his memories are: his children, Roger (Erol) Bowles of Stanton, TN, Lawrence (Catherine) Bowles of Buffalo, NY, Carolyn Bowles of Stanton, TN and Randy (Yvonne) Bowles of Memphis, TN; two sisters, Pauline Currie and Hazel Johnson, both of Stanton, TN; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertha (Otis) Porter of Stanton, TN; four brothers-in-law, Aaron (Kathleen), R. V. (Edna), Johnnie Taylor, all of Chicago, IL and Jessie Rivers of Stanton, TN; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a special friend, Martha Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"We loved him, yes we loved him
But God loved him more
And He has swiftly called him
To yonder shining shore.

The Golden Gates were opened
A gentle voice said, "Come."
And with farewell unspoken
He calmly entered home."

Obituary