Aunt Hattie and Uncle Dallas was mother and father to many, many children around them. To know them was to love them.

After her health began to fail, she moved to Haywood County with a loving niece, Mrs. Hattie Watkins.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one brother, Mr. Jim Steve Dickerson of McKenzie, Tennessee; three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Dickerson of McKenzie, Mrs. Willie Mae Dickerson of Memphis and Mrs. Claudia Dickerson of Louisville, Kentucky, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sang a lovely song,
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers
If so, we saw them there
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words
As many friends can say
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food
Or maybe furnished a car
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen
Near at hand or from afar
Whatever you did to console the heart
We thank you so much whatever the part.

WHY BE SAD?

This shouldn't be a sad occasion —
God intended this should be;
This is not for one person, it must come to you and me;
Why be sad to see a friend leave this world of sin?
The angels are waiting now, yes, waiting to welcome her in.
Why be sad to see a friend eased of pain or woe?
Lift up your head, and say, I'll grieve no more.
Why be sad, when you know you did your best?
Our dear one is now in Heaven, resting on Jesus' breast.
Why be sad and cry your poor self down?
Jesus is now waiting in glory, waiting to put on her starry crown.
