ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

When our load seems hard to bear we looked around and our friends were there with food, flowers and words spoken with smiling faces and hearts open. They comfort us and share our grief. May God bless and keep you, granting all relief. Our grati- tudes cannot be adequately expressed. But they are the best that we can offer during this period of stress.

The Family

*You came into this world with great love
And then you were gone.
You shared it with us a little while
And the you were home.
Now is your time for a peaceful reat
For God loves you best.
On your journey we wish you well
Through the tears we wish you farewell.

I've Done My Work

*I've done my work, I've sing my song
I've done some good, I've done some wrong,
And I shall go where I belong,
The Lord has willed it so.
He knows my heart and every thought
He knows what pain and joy I've brought,
And by his love I shall be taught
The way to him, I know.
He knows my soul so weak and blind,
So full of fears of mortal mind;
And He shall lead and I shall find
The way to Him, I know.
He guides my steps, for He knows best
He will not harm where He is blest
And so goodnight, I'll take my Rest
With Him who loves me best.*

RECESSIONAL

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
