Tribute

*How sweet it is at evening
To close the eyes in slumber,
And rest from the toil of the day.
It is doubly sweet at the close of a well spent life,
To turn one's face to the sunset of a well spent life,
To turn one's face toward the sunset
Quietly sink into the rest that knows no awakening
Except in the presence of God.
"A charge to keep I have, a God
To glorify who gave his son my soul to save,
And fitted for the sky."*

Expressions of Gratitude

The family extends to all well wishes, sincere gratitude for your love and support. May God bless you.

Obituary

Mr. Leon Jarmon was born August 20, 1907, in Fayette County, Tennessee to Lucy Murphy and Robert Jarmon. He quietly entered eternal rest in Nashville, Tennessee.

He accepted Christ at an early age and united with Clover Garden C.M.E. Church in Whiteville, Tennessee, where he served faithfully until his health failed. He received his education in the public schools of Fayette County.

He was married to Iola Douglas Jarmon, who preceded him in death. To this union were born fourteen children. He later married Annie Perry Jarmon, to this union no children were born. He is survived by twelve children, Elvin (Minnie) Jarmon, Obie (Wilma) Jarmon, Maurine (Gilmore) Bronaugh, Lillie (George) Buford, Juanita Ransom, Earnestine (Cecil) Dowell, Minnie Sue (William) Patterson, Lucy Jarmon, Shirley Rayford, Robert Jarmon, John Jarmon and Gwendolyn (Thomas) Watson; forty-two grandchildren and forty-one great grandchildren. He also leaves to cherish his memory a host of in-laws, nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends.

He was a quiet and humble man who was guided through life by God's word and looked forward to his heavenly home. One of his last statements was: "If ever there was a time for me to rest, now is the time . . . I'm going to be alright."

To those I Love

If I should ever leave you whom I love

To go along the silent way, grieve not, nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you there.
