Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a memory spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.

THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE

The loss of a loved one is hard to bare, because you have lost the hopes and dreams you share.

The ones who tell you to do as you are told, the one's you hoped to see grow very, very old.

In my heart I cry tears of pain, for in my eyes you have died in vain.

The time has come for you to go, but you will never know how much I loved you so.

Mom is crying and Dad is crying too, that lets me know that their love for you was true.

Why you died I think I understood. You died for love and you died for good.

God has called for you, he knows best, so go ahead and take your final rest.

Oh aunt tee you will be missed so with this I let you go with a loving hug and kiss.

Obituary

*Memories are treasures no one can steal
Death is heartache no one can heal
Some may forget now that you are gone
But we will remember no matter how long
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we'll miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever take your place.*

Mrs. Stella Mae Lewis was born October 25, 1923 to the union of Mr. & Mrs. Edna and George B. Carney of Haywood County. She departed this life on April 8, 1985 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age where she joined with Antioch Douglass Chapel. She later joined Bluff Creek and served as a missionary and on the Mother Board where she remained until death.

On February 5, 1945 she was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. William E. Lewis whom she leaves to cherish her memory. To this union no children were born. She was the Godmother of three children Isiah Lewis of Brownsville, Tennessee, Dorothy Henderson and Edna-Mae Johnson of Somerville, Tennessee.

She also leaves five sisters Mrs. Vernell Carney, Mrs. France Sight of Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Mary Bond, Mrs. Mildred Benton of Memphis, Tennessee, Mrs. Maliska Mask of Louisville, Kentucky; Three brothers Mrs. James Curtis Carney of Chicago, Illinois, Mr. Frank Albert Carney of Memphis, Tennessee and Mr. James Walter Carney of Stanton, Tennessee; Two uncles of Chicago Mr. Walter Pruitt and Mr. Jimmy Bell; forty-five nieces and nephews; eight sisters-in-law; great nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her passing.

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me
May there be no mourning of the bar
When I put out to sea.*
