

*...ing there is a season,
 to every purpose under the heaven:*
 A time to be born, and a time to die;
 A time to plant, and a time to pluck up
 that which is planted;
 A time to kill, and a time to heal;
 A time to break down and a time to build up;
 A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
 A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
 A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
 A time to get, and a time to lose;
 A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
 A time to end, and a time to sew;
 A time to keep silent, and a time to speak;
 A time to love, and a time to hate;
 A time of war, and a time of peace...
 All are of dust, and all turn to dust again.

Obituary

W.B. Hopson was born in Fayette County, Tennessee on March 28, 1911 to Mary Ingram and Wash Hopson both of whom preceded him in death. He became a Christian in the late 1940s, was baptized, and joined the Russell Grove Baptist Church in Somerville, Tennessee.

On December 6, 1930, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Virginia Hunter who also preceded him in death. To this union ten (10) children were born.

He departed this life on Friday, June 14, 1991 at 4:50 P.M. in University City, Missouri after a brief illness.

W.B. leaves to cherish his loving memory ten children: Wash Hopson of Beloit, Wisconsin, Jennie Rayner-Jones of Oak Creek, Wisconsin, Robert A. Hopson of Memphis Tennessee, Juanita Hopson of University City, Missouri, W.B. "Skipper" Hopson of Oak Creek, Wisconsin, Carl R. Hopson of Rockford, Illinois, Willette Coleman of O'Fallon, Illinois, Gilliam F. Hopson of Rockford, Illinois, Linda J. Hopson of Webster Groves, Missouri, and Jean S. Brown of Vanceboro, North Carolina; two sisters, Pauline Jones of South Bend, Indiana and Vernita Fugh of Memphis, Tennessee. He also leaves thirty-eight (38) grandchildren, thirty-six great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
