O B I T U A R Y

Bro. Amos Boram was born June 11, 1908 to the union of the late Lula Clark Boram and Tony Boram. He expired March 8th, 1980.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with Mt. Zion M. B. Church and remained a member until death. He lived a quiet and peaceful life. He was a devoted husband and father. He was always willing to do whatever he could to help a neighbor or a friend.

He united in Holy Matrimony with Ms. Hannah Jones on April 12th, 1952 and honored his vows until death.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A loving wife, Mrs. Hannah Boram: A daughter, Mrs. Annie Pearl Hall of St. Louis, Mo.: Eight grandchildren: Three great grandchildren: Two step-daughters, Mmes. Amanda Newman of Chicago, Ill. and Reola Craig of Covington, Tenn.: One sister, Ms. Minnie Lue Williams: One brother-in-law, Mr. Emery Williams: One brother, Mr. Edd Boram of Stanton, Tenn.: Fourteen foster-grandchildren: And a host of other relatives and friends that will miss him dearly and cherish his memories.
