O B I T U A R Y

In the midst of life there is the death angle that rides on every breeze. To earth she comes and plucks a flower called life and to eternity this life flees.

We realize that death, though not a stranger, is an unwelcome visitor and must one day invade every home.

On September 30, 1970 at 12:00 O'clock noon hearts were saddened, for the home of Mr. & Mrs. W. L. Hay was visited by the sting of death. And from this home a mother, Sis. Kate Ora Jones, was taken.

Sis. Kate Ora Jones was born in Tipton Co., Tenn. February 10, 1885 to the late Mr. & Mrs. Jake and Sally Smith Buggs.

At an early age Sis. Jones united with the Dancyville C.M.E. Church where she served as a loyal member and president of the Stewardess Board. She loved her church and attended regularly until her health failed. Her illness did not cause her interest in the church to cease for she bore it with the patience of Job, forever concerned about her church and it's welfare.

Sis. Jones was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Jake Jones who preceded her in death. To this union five children were born, one preceded her in death.

Sis. Jones leaves to cherish her memories: Three daughters; Mrs. Hortense Hay and Mrs. Sally Jones of Brownsville, Tenn. and Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Memphis, Tenn. One son;

Mr. Walter Jones of Brownsville, Tenn.: Three sons-in-law; One daughter-in-law; Nineteen grandchildren: Thirty-two great-grandchildren; And a host of relatives and friends.

Tho no herald acclaims me a here in the field,
In the sweet conclusion I've done my best.
In the cool of the evening I shall come to my rest.
