

HONORARY PALLBEARERS:

James Huston Boyd
Elvis Boyd
Louis Boyd

John Melvin Boyd
James Arthur Boyd
Harvey James Holmes

ACTIVE PALLBEARERS:

Officers of Dancyville C.M.E. Church

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

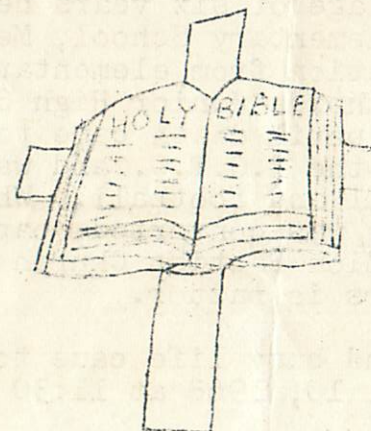

The family acknowledges with sincere gratefulness the many expressions of kindness evidenced in thought, word and deed at this time and for your attendance at these final rites.

RAWLS FUNERAL HOME IN CHARGE

OBSEQUIES

OF THE LATE

MR. HAZEL BOYD, JR.

Dancyville C.M.E. Church
Stanton, Tenn.

Rev. F. T. Sanders, Pastor
Tuesday, April 16, 1968

1:00 P.M.

Obituary

Death comes at all seasons and to all ages. The cradle is His, Childhood and youth, the prime of manhood and womanhood is His. He blights the freshness of hope and promise and clothes in the garments of the grave those bound most closely by the ties of this life.

Hazel Boyd, Jr., was born in Haywood County Tenn. June 7, 1951 to Mr. & Mrs. Hazel Boyd, Sr. At the age of six years he entered Riverview Elementary School, Memphis, Tenn. After graduation from elementary school, he entered Southside Junior High School where he attended until death came to him. He was a member of the R.O.T.C. and was very active in basketball and football. When he was 12 years old he was converted, baptized and joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church of which Rev. L. V. Sanders is pastor.

An active and busy life came to a close Wednesday night, April 10, 1968 at 11:30 P.M. instantly.

He is survived by a Mother and Father, A sister, Diane Boyd. Two grandfathers, Mr. Ed Boyd and Mr. Cleveland Harwell. One grandmother, Mrs. Cleveland Harwell all of Stanton, Tenn. Five Uncles, Twelve Aunts and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Program

Processional

Song ..... Choir

Scripture

Prayer

Song ..... Choir

Acknowledgements

Resolutions

Remarks

Song ..... Choir

Obituary ..... Soft Music

Remarks ..... Rev. F. T. Sanders,
Pastor, Dancyville C.M.E.
Church

Eulogy ..... Rev. J. L. Tolbert
Pastor, First Baptist Church

Viewing of Remains

Recessional

INTERMENT: DANCYVILLE CEMETERY