*Up and away like the dew of the morning
That soars from the earth to its home in the sun.
So let me steal away, gently and lovingly.
Remembered by what I have done.*

*Up and away like the odors of sunset.
That sweeten the twilight at darkness come on.
So be my life a thing that felt but not noticed,
And I, remembered by what I have done.*

*My name, my place and tomb all forgotten.
The race of life will and patiently run,
So let me pass away peacefully, silently,
Remembered by what I have done.*
