OBITUARY

She stood on the brink of the river with her face to the rising sun. She knew her journey was over and the victory finally won. She has now gone to be with the Savior to receive her just reward, to join in the glorious fellowship in that city of the Lord.

Mrs. Julia Barbee departed this life November 10, 1973 at 3:00 P. M. at her residence in Stanton, Tennessee after a long illness. She was born July 13, 1906 to the proud parents of Mr. Westley and Mrs. Julie Halliburton, in Lauderdale County, Tennessee.

She confessed religion at an early age and served faithfully under the leadership of the late Rev. R. L. Reed until his death and later she served under the leadership of Rev. W. A. Allen.

On November 2, 1922, she entered Holy Matrimony with her beloved husband, Mr. Willie Roosevelt Barbee and God blessed them with three children of which one preceded her in death, leaving one daughter, Ruth Burnette Perkins and one son, Robert Wayland Barbee. She was a devoted wife, mother and church worker. She worked in many churches throughout Tennessee, Mississippi and many other states. She was a music instructor for many years. She worked and enjoyed working for Christ and with people for as long as God permitted.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her husband, Mr. Willie Roosevelt Barbee; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Burnette Perkins; a son-in-law, the late Ernest Perkins of Chicago, Ill.; a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. Robert Wayland and Mrs. Gladys Louise Barbee of the home address; eight grandchildren, Beverly, Ida, Ernest, Dwyne, Kenneth, of Chicago, Ill., Nadenia, Warren and Terri of Memphis; a great grandson, Percy; two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Barlowe and Mrs. Edna Williams of Ripley, Tenn.; four brothers-in-law, Mr. Frank Barbee, Mr. George Swift, Mr. Joseph Barlowe of Ripley, Tenn., and Mr. Eldridge Barbee of St. Louis, Mo. Five sisters-in-law, Mrs. Cherry Swift, Mrs. Annie Barbee, Mrs. Louise Halliburton, of Ripley, Tenn., Mrs. Mary P. Barbee and Mrs. Eddie Halliburton of St. Louis, Mo., and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends to mourn her passing.
