OBITUARY

Mr. Simuel Flagg, Sr. was born June 3, 1897, to the late George and Mary Flagg in Haywood County, Tennessee, and departed this life Monday, December 16, 1968, at Madison County General Hospital, Jackson, Tennessee, at 6:20 A. M. He became a Christian and joined Woodlawn Baptist Church where he was active in several church activities. In 1920 he married Miss Mary B. Young, and to this union six sons and one daughter were born. Moving in 1940 to the Douglass Community, he joined Douglass Chapel C. M. E. Church, where he was a member of the Usher Board and also served as Treasurer.

In addition to being a very industrious citizen, he was a devoted husband and father who strove to make his family comfortable and happy. To know his children is to find that they have ever remembered his teaching of Christian principles.

His survivors are a wife, Mrs. Mary B. Flagg; one daughter, Mrs. Mable Ruth Stevenson of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; six sons, Dorias and Rufus Flagg of Brownsville, Tennessee; Benjamin Flagg of Nashville, Tennessee; James Morgan Flagg of Chicago, Illinois; J. Ollie Flagg of Atlanta, Georgia, and Rev. Simuel Flagg, Jr. of U. S. Army; one son-in-law, six daughters-in-law, twenty-three grand-children, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mann of Brownsville, Tennessee and Mrs. Essie L. South of Michigan City, Indiana; one brother Mr. Julius Flagg of Centralia, Illinois; many relatives and friends to mourn his passing.
