

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is my keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

TRIBUTE

We said many prayers for you, and know God must have heard.
We felt the answers in our hearts although He spoke no word.
We didn't ask for wealth or fame (we knew you wouldn't mind);
We asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind.
We asked for happiness for you in all things great and small;
But it was for your health and His Loving care we prayed the most of all.

The Life you lived was true and honest.
Not only a mother, a grandmother, a great grandmother,
but also our friend
Happy Hearted and Contented.
Faithful to us until the very end.
Now your earthly strife is over
No more sorrow; no more care and no more pain
Yet our hearts are sad and lonely.
We love thee well, but He loves thee best.
We will deeply miss you,
Sleep on Mother and take thy rest.
If we have faith to believe and trust in God
We will meet one day to never part again.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

St. John 14:1-3
