OBITUARY

The clock of Life is wound but once,
And no man has the power to tell
Just when the clock will stop
At an early or late hour.

Now is the only time we own
Let us love, love and toil with a will.
Let us place no trust in tomorrow
For the clock may then be still.

Peace came on Tuesday Morning, November 17, 1987, 3:54 a.m., when GEORGE POWELL was called to reap his reward. He was born September 7, 1910, the second child of Martha and Charles Powell.

He professed hope in Christ at an early age and joined Jerusalem Baptist Church in St. Louis, Missouri, where he remained until death.

In 1934, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Earlene Boyd, deceased. He later married Jane Alston.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Jane Powell; one son, George L. Powell; one daughter-in-law, Nola Powell; one sister, Louella Grady; four grandchildren, Dwayne Powell, Mrs. Jarr Robinson, Mrs. Tracy Caldwell and Stacy Edmond Powell; five great-grandchildren all of St. Louis, Missouri; and a host of relatives and friends.
