OBITUARY

God has not promised,
Skies always blue,
Flowers strewn paths
All our lives through.
God has not promised,
Sunshine without rain
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God has promised
Strength for today.
Rest for the labors,
Light for the way.

JOE LEWIS PHILLIPS was the ninth child born to Matt Phillips and Sallie Deloise Phillips on February 21, 1939 in Stanton, Tennessee.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age, and joined the Douglas Chapel A.M.E. Church.

In the early sixties, he moved to Louisville, Kentucky, and on February 25, 1960 he was united in the Holy Bond of Matrimony to his loving wife, Peggy. To this union two children were born. He was a devoted and loving father, as well as a generous and helpful person to his family and friends.

Joe was employed at the C. Lee Cook Machinery Company for eighteen years.

Leaving to cherish his memory are: a loving wife, Peggy Phillips; a daughter, Evelyn D. Phillips; a son, Anthony D. Phillips; six sisters, Frances Douglas, Annie E. Pueirtt, Sallie M. Franklin, Nancy Jo Phillips, Lela Kate Jones and Bessie L. Jones, all of Louisville, KY; three brothers, John Watkins of Chicago, IL, Otis Caldwell of Memphis, TN and Orange Phillips of Louisville, KY; many many nieces and great nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
