The Mass is the celebration of Jesus' Death and Resurrection. It is a symbolic representation of the Last Supper. It is most appropriate that we bid farewell to a loved one by the celebration of Mass, because she passed with Jesus through Death to Resurrection.

Through the eyes of faith, death is truly a time to celebrate, because in death we participate in the victory of Christ as He overcomes sin and death.

OBITUARY

MS. ROBERT MAE WHITE, the daughter of Robert and Mary Hailey White, was born July 6, 1933 in Stanton, Tennessee. She was the oldest of four children. Her father and sister, June Violet, preceded her in death.

She received her primary schooling in Dancyville grade school and completed her education at Allen White High School. In November of 1955, ROBERT MAE moved to Indianapolis, Indiana.

Having accepted Christ early in life, she was baptized at St. John Missionary Baptist Church. She later received instruction and was baptized in accordance with the Holy Rites of the Roman Catholic Church. At the time of her passing she was a member of the St. Andrew The Apostle parish.

ROBERT MAE was employed by RCA, now known as Thomson Consumer Electronics for twenty-nine years. A member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, (I.B.E.W.), Local #1048, she was also active with the Ladies Auxiliary of Knights of St. Peter Claver.

"BOBBIE", as she was affectionately known to family and friends, started at an early age taking on the full realities in life of hard work, happiness, love and sorrow.

MS. ROBERT MAE WHITE departed this earthly life on August 25, 1993 at the age of sixty years, one month and eighteen days. She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Mary White Robinson; two sisters, Betty White Smith and Teddye White; a host of nieces and nephews, including a beloved favorite nephew, Gregory K. Smith; other relatives; fiance' Charlies Holmes; church family and many friends.

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace, where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
