IN LOVING MEMORY

There's a special sort of feeling
When we talk about you Dad
It's a pleasure to remember
All the happy times we've had.
There's a special kind of caring
That is meant for you alone
There's a special place within our hearts
That only you can own.

There's a special sort of feeling
That's warm and loving to
A feeling that will always come
With every thought of you.

We knew that we were lucky
Because we always had you around
To pick us up when we were down.
For whenever you were needed
You were there to lend a hand
And when we had a problem
You'd help and understand
Yes, we were very close
But it's now that we see
With every year that passes by
In our loving hearts you'll be
We miss you!

Obituary

*Love that opens heaven above thee
Dearest Herb, God and I love thee so!*

—Loving Wife, Louise

HERBERT D. WATKINS was born to the union of the late Charlotte and Willie Watkins on December 23, 1942 in Haywood County, Stanton, Tennessee. He departed this life on August 15, 1985 at St. Bernard's Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, after a brief illness.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age where he served on the Junior Choir at Douglass Chapel C.M.E. Church, Stanton, Tennessee.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Mary Louise Kerr, December 5, 1962 and to this union, three children were born. He moved his family to Chicago, Illinois in July, 1964. Herbert was a devoted husband and father and will be missed by us all.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Mary Louise Watkins; one daughter, Karen Elaine; two sons, Kenneth and Lester Watkins; his first expectant grandchild; two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Nash Powell of Stanton, Tennessee and Mrs. Edna Q. Brown of Hammond, Indiana; five brothers: Ernest and Edward Watkins of Stanton, Tennessee, Robert Watkins of Los Angeles, California, John and Cornelius (Son) Watkins of Chicago, Illinois; forty-seven nieces and nephews; six brothers-in-law; six sisters-in-law and a host of cousins, play kids, relatives and friends.

*Memories are treasures none can steal
Death is a heartache none can heal
Some may forget, now that you are gone.
But we will remember, no matter how long!
We miss you now, our hearts are sore.
As time goes by, we will miss you more.*
