The Obituary

Elnora Smith Herron, was born in Robinsonville, Mississippi, to the late Martha and Fred Smith.

Her parents moved to Memphis, Tennessee during her early childhood and she attended the Memphis Public Schools, graduating from Manassas High School. She later attended Henderson Business School.

Early in her life she took Jesus as her personal Savior and joined Collins Cahpel C.M.E. Church, where she worked faithfully during her stay in Tennessee.

She met and married John Herron of Bolivar, Tennessee. They moved to Detroit, Michigan, where he preceded her in death. After moving to Detroit, she became a member of Allen Temple C.M.E. Church. She rendered loyal and dedicated service. She never permitted her partnership with God to become deficient, forever holding to his unchanging hand.

Elnora departed this life Sunday, September 9, 1990 at Detroit Riverview Hospital. She leaves to cherish her memory, her aunt, Mrs. Margurite Smith of Chicago, Illinois; her brother, Milmon Mitchell of Detroit, Michigan; one niece, Felice Dodson of East Orange, New Jersey; one nephew, Herbert Wells of Memphis, Tennessee; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Clock Of Life

The clock of life is wound but once
 And no man has the power,
 To tell just when the clock will stop,
 At an early or late hour.

Now is the only time we own,
 Let us live, love and toil with a will,
 Let us place no trust in tomorrow,
 For the clock may then be still.
